

Director
 National Security-Korelan
 Headquarters Division
 ← Director of National Security
 Director of Defense
 Director of Defense
 Director of Defense

would have no place in the process of communication with federal courts.
 for our information—the FCC would consider the above language an increase in access fees
 we hope that during this time of war—their war authority is contagious by bypassing the pre-paid calling cards to communicate with their loved ones back home.

 on the thousands of young men and women in our military service around the world who performed calling cards. It was a proposed amendment, it will place an instant burden the effect of this new regulation, if necessary, would be an estimated 20% hike in rates on
 The proposal would impose new charges and taxes on pre-paid calling cards.

on industry professionals and their families.
 experts on economic regulation a recent proposal that would have a significant impact on
 On behalf of the 2.7 million members of The American Legion, I would like to

Dear Chairman Powell:

Re: Budget No. 03-133

Washington, DC 20585
 451 12th Street, SW
 Federal Communications Commission
 Michael K. Powell, Chairman

December 15, 2004

For Gov and Senator

The American Legion

* AGENCIES OF THE GOVERNMENT * 1000 15th STREET, N.W. * WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-2907 *
 (202) 639-2200 * FAX (202) 639-2207 *

DECEMBER 17 2004
 Federal Communications Commission
 Office of Secretary
 DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

RECEIVED